

TeamQ Report

Team-Q was developed for self and peer assessment of an individual's teamwork skills. It is designed for undergraduate education as a practical method for assessing teamwork as a learning outcome. The following describes teamwork behaviors, with students report on a five point scale how often their peers (and self) demonstrate each of the behaviors (Never, Sometimes, Usually, Regularly, Always).

TeamQ Ratings Radar

Below is a radar chart that presents the results of your teammates rating of your abilities and your own ratings of your abilities. The ratings of your teammates have been averaged together for ease of comparison.

Suggestions to Improve

Part of the TeamQ was to “Write one specific, actionable goal to help your teammate improve their teamwork competency”. Presented below are the goals you wrote for yourself, followed by the goals your teammates wrote for you.

others	You are a natural leader and have good ideas You are also good about making sure everything we do is evidence based which helps our team others	Continue to be assertive when you disagree Try not to commit to a deadline if you don't think you will have time to meet it
others	I appreciate it whenever you ask someone to elaborate their ideas about a certain project It shows your interest in what that person has to say and valuing their opinions
